SATURDAY NOVEMBER 17, 1877. Two Sides of a Love Story. Supposing a you'h, with his heart in his eyes.
That shone like the light of the beautiful skies,
That shone like the light of the beautiful skies,
Should promise to love me through all of life,
And begged that I'd be his own dear little wife—
Guess I would—wouldn't you?

[Camden Post.

Suppose that a girl, with her heart in her clothes. And her bonnet shoved down on the bridge of her nose.
Should go for your person and pocket for life.
To be a useless, expensive, and cumbersome wife—
Guess I wouldn't—would you?

This LAND is extremely fertile, and is in a high barn, stable, and other out-houses, and a well of good of water on the place.

This LAND is extremely fertile, and is in a high state of cultivation, and by reason of its contiguity to the city of Richmond is extremely valuable not only for its great advantages as a truck-farm, but by reason of its prospective value as a site for building lots. It is the same farm formerly owned by John Minor Botts, and adjoins the property of the Catholic College.

This FARM will be sold as a whole, and upon the following terms—to wit: This FARM will be sold as a whole, and upon the following terms—to wit:

Cash as to enough to defray the expenses of sale and the sum of $2.750, and interest thereon from the 16th day of October, 1876; and as to the residue, upon such terms as shall be announced at the time of sale.

It is probable that as to said residue terms may be arranged such as will be satisfactory to hidden. It is probable that as to said residue terms hay be arranged such as will be satisfactory to bidders.
